Dear friends and supporters:

This financial year ended up with mix memories with all our beneficiaries, partner charities and the staff. Our goal of offering children empowerment, a friendly fearless world and creating the opportunities by converting the helpless women into financially independent women has been acted satisfactorily. There are still need for intervention to protect needy people, address their needs, transform their lives through prevention, health care, rehabilitation, education & community projects.

Apart from our regular projects, we had been trying to start up new community-based projects; has been moving towards right direction. Our supporters have always been encouraging us to reach even more. We in an NCF Nepal team, always has been accountable for what we are doing, being transparent, being honest and being responsible. Even with the struggle with limited resources, we continue our work for best results.

At the end, I want to express my sincere congratulation to all my board members, staffs and stakeholder and most important to my donors and partners.
